

MERCHANT'S LONG SEARCH IS ENDED

Was Treated in Europe As Well As America—Finds Health at Last by Taking Tanlac

"For nearly twenty years I have searched for something to rid me of my troubles, and my efforts have at last been rewarded since I have found Tanlac," was the statement made recently by E. Grah, a well-known cutlery dealer located at 825 Fifth St., San Diego, Cal.

"For years I have been in the worst sort of health, bothered with stomach trouble, disordered kidneys, constipation and a general run-down condition," continued Mr. Grah. "It seemed that I could not eat a thing that agreed with me, and right after I finished a meal I would feel as if I had something awful. My kidneys bothered me a great deal and I had to be constantly taking laxatives, as I was badly constipated. I had suffered so long that my whole system was in a weakened condition and I felt every treatment I knew of here in America, and when I went to England I took all kinds of medicine over there, but in spite of everything I could not get better and worse all the time."

"Finally I began taking Tanlac, as I had heard so much about it, and it is a fact I received the shock of my life when I began to improve. That encouraged me so that I had more hopes than ever of getting rid of my troubles, and I kept on taking it until now I can say I am in the very best of health and am never troubled in any way. The gas stopped forming on my stomach and now everything I eat agrees with me without a sign of indigestion. I am free of constipation and my kidneys are in fine condition. After all these years I can now say that I am a well and strong man and am enjoying life more than ever. I have read through the papers, and I am so grateful to the good people who told me about it that I want to make a public statement myself and tell others what it has done for me so that the good word may be passed along. Tanlac has done just as much good for my wife as it has for me, and I think so much of this medicine that I don't doubt a thing good I hear about it."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company stores—Advertisement

Boy Scouts from Eleven States Will Assemble in Berkeley for Round-Up

Emblems, aims and achievements of the Boy Scouts, today's style of the youthful crusader, will be disseminated throughout the Eastbay during the next thirty days as never before.

Picturesque with "outdoor camps" indoors, demonstrations of handicraft, exhibitions of nature knowledge, like knights of old taking solemn pledges to perform only good deeds—and then doing them—the western roundup of Scouts of eleven states in Berkeley from January 21 to 23, affords the average citizen much in the way of novelty.

On top of that will come the celebration, beginning February 8, of the tenth anniversary of the Boy Scout movement in the United States.

In the week following every man, woman and child will be asked to apply one of the fundamental principles of the movement to their own lives and do "one good turn a day."

CO-OPERATION ASSURED. Oakland has made extensive preparations for her part in the anniversary celebration. Co-operation of churches, schools and fraternal organizations will be sought, said J. B. Semmes, chief executive of the Oakland Scouts.

At 8:30 on the evening of Sunday, February 8, every scout in the United States is expected to stand at attention wherever he may be and renew his scout oath.

The western roundup will have headquarters in the Hotel Claremont, which will be converted into an "outdoor camp" for the occasion. Coats and other camp equipment will be spread out over one entire floor and the legend, "Camp Sierra," will crown the ensemble.

PRESS REQUESTED. The scouts have asked for 10,000 Christmas trees to help in the decorations. There will be numerous exhibits, study maps, scout photography, merit badge work and the like. The program follows:

SCUTTLE AT WORK.

Pursuing their venal plot to disrupt and destroy the civil service system of Oakland, in order that they may further exploit the city for political patronage, that majority clique of the City Council, Commissioners Morse, Soderberg and Edwards, have launched another attack upon civil service. They have introduced an ordinance abolishing the position of efficiency accountant of the civil service commission and creating a similar position under the direct control of the city council. This means the placing of the efficiency accountant under the control of Morse, Soderberg and Edwards.

In a letter to the City Council protesting against this new raid, the acting president of the Civil Service Commission exposed some of the effects which will follow the enactment of the ordinance. Commissioner Chambers writes:

"The board feels that the creation of the position of Efficiency Expert, to work under the City Council, is a blow at the merit system; that it is a political move to disrupt the civil service of the city, and to bring the same into disrepute; that it will result in the political juggling of city positions, and the general dissatisfaction of the whole service; that, by its partial investigations, a majority of the City Council can make it unsafe for any employee to go contrary to its desire; that it will permit the council to build up a political machine, with the object of electing certain men to office, all of which will defy the will of the people and violate the principles of civil service, as laid down in the city charter, and, in fact, the council already has created positions, in the city service that are taken from under the operation of civil service, which would appear on its face, that the said majority members of the council had this object in view."

The aim of this majority of the City Council, organized to scuttle the Civil Service Commission, have been apparent for some time. They want to destroy the powers which have been vested in the Civil Service Commission by the city charter. They would escape the restraint against inefficiency, wastage of the public funds and political chicanery which the civil service constitutes. They aim to take municipal employees out of the civil service and supplant them with political servitors responsible to the political machine which the three majority commissioners seek to make of themselves. They already have made a number of such transfers, and the "political" appointees invariably receive a higher compensation than they would receive under the Civil Service Commission. Yet the three commissioners turned down recommendations of increase in the pay of civil service employees.

In this scheme to ignore the charter adopted by the people of Oakland and to destroy the civil service system as an instrument for the protection of the people, the three commissioners have the aid of the city clerk and the city attorney, both political appointees. The city attorney, who is expected to devote his efforts to seeing the law upheld, has employed his talents in finding and devising ways to evade the charter provisions and to override their spirit.

The ordinance abolishing the efficiency accountant of the Civil Service Commission should be rescinded. It is a vicious attempt to destroy honesty and efficiency in the public service. The safety and the good name of the city is at stake. If it succeeds the people of Oakland may be excused for considering means of removing from office elected officials who are bent upon wrecking the system of government which the people created.

THE BUILDING OUTLOOK.

The state of the steel industry is always an index of high value to the country's general business conditions, present and expected. Expansion in nearly every line of American industry calls for the consumption of steel. The building industry especially is dependent upon ample supply of steel.

It is significant therefore that the statement of the United States Steel Corporation for December 31, 1919, showed the unfilled orders on the books of the steel corporation at that date to total $265,256 tons. This is 1,127,490 tons more than the unfilled orders of November 30 last and 909,090 tons more than on December 31, 1918.

Taking the steel trade as an index, therefore, the country is due to witness great activity in the building line in 1920. This means railroad construction and repair, public and private construction of buildings, shipbuilding and the manufacture of machinery and other equipment for railroads and other public utilities and for the manufacturing industry.

According to the New York Journal of Commerce, merce, statistics collected for the most active section of the country—north of the line of the Ohio River and east of the Missouri—show that existing contracts and plans call for an expenditure of $2,800,000,000. If an allowance of one-third, suggested by experience, is made for plans not carried out, the actual investment in new residential and industrial structures in this section will be about $2,000,000,000. New York State alone is prepared to spend about $150,000,000 on new projects; New England $231,000,000.

Capital is ready to go ahead. But there are some disagreeable factors to be considered, such as the difficulty of obtaining and the uncertainty of the cost of materials, the other items of cost and the long time often necessary to get delivery of materials.

But if the country could only get its face turned away from war conditions and toward normal peace conditions much progress could be achieved in building up. The period of wastage and profitless expenditure would be definitely put behind us.

THE TREATY EFFECTIVE.

Final exchange of ratification of the Versailles peace treaty by the Allied powers and Germany renders more improbable the hope that any material change in the treaty by the United States Senate can be accepted. With the exchange of ratifications, the period in which protocols might be attached closed. The peace conference will soon be disbanded. It is still possible that the Allied governments might be brought together again to consider proposed changes by the United States, but such a thing is more improbable than ever.

The problem before the Senate and President Wilson would seem to be how to formulate a resolution of ratification in harmony with the peace treaty as it stands and at the same time securing the United States against every actual or prospective impairment of sovereignty and freedom of action. If this is not done, the United States will assume the position of having rejected the treaty.

The Versailles treaty is now effective. Its terms are in process of enforcement. The League of Nations covenant has been accepted by all the European belligerents, Japan, and the majority of the South American republics. European neutrals have signified their adherence to its principle and in due time will be formally admitted to the league. The league will immediately begin to function—in the administration of Danzig, the enforcement of a settlement of the Fiume and other Adriatic questions, and the delegation of mandates for the government of former German colonies.

It is no longer possible for the United States to defeat the peace treaty and the League of Nations by simple abstention from the undertakings of the Versailles agreement. She may hold aloof, in the dismal company of China and Mexico! Those citizens who love their country will find little comfort in such an attitude.

Victor Berger has for the second time been denied admission to the House of Representatives. The vote against seating him was 328 to 6. The case against Berger is complete and unassailable. He is a convicted felon, guilty of a high crime against the country and the government. His own admissions remove every vestige of doubt as to his guilt. He is ineligible to a seat in Congress. But Berger's second attempt to enter Congress is more easily understood than the conduct of the majority of the voters of the Milwaukee district that elected him. They knew he could not be permitted to serve in Congress. They backed a seditionist against their country and its laws. They are guilty of the gravest moral dereliction, and as long as they live they will be a disgrace to the country.

Members of the executive board of the Alameda County District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, have decided that the peace treaty is purely a political issue. Apparently they measured the peace treaty by the estimate of politicians who are striving to make it a political issue and not by the conceptions and purposes which it represents. Curious how far afield of the truth well-meaning persons may sometimes wander.

SOMEBODY BLUNDERED.

The President signed the McNary bill on December 31, thereby making it law and continuing the extension of the sugar export bounty through 1921. A statement given out from the White House announcing the fact and predicting a steady drop in prices, but in fact the President's action on the White House statement, sugar sold at from 25 to 25 cents a pound and in Washington yesterday. In one well-known series of chain stores, which were closed on Thursday, it was found that from 125 to 150 cents a pound of sugar was being sold. The estimate of officials of the board is that during the present year the average price throughout the country will be 25 cents a pound.

This is a tremendous jump from the official price of 11 cents 50 by the board and the fact that in 1917 and 1918 and previous years the price of sugar has been nearly 30 pounds and more a pound. The increase of 14 cents a pound means that the sugar bill of the United States for 1920 will reach the total of $1,000,000,000, or more, and that the sugar bill of 1919, or 1918, or 1917, or 1916, FIRST CENSUS
HINT HERE IS

With but four more days in which the official census count of the Oakland census enumerators are working, less difficulty in securing information for the census, and the census Supervisor C. L. Donohue, says persons against whom investigations which might lead to prosecutions were started have given the required information to census workers and cases will not be pressed, Donohue says.

Announcement of figures with the completion of the registration of minors for the education census as made public by W. A. Hammond, official registrar, have furnished local estimates of the city's population. The largest estimate offered by computation on the registration of minor figures is 277,342, according to the census committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

This figure was gained by setting ratio of the total number of minors to the total population from the 1910 census. The ratio is 2.1 total population to every minor child. The total of the minor census is 124,179, which multiplied by 2.1 gives 277,342, the estimated population.

Donohue says this figure seems too high and that while there may be over a quarter a million population in the city, more co-operation from citizens is needed if the population is to show on the census records.

Following threats of prosecution, so many persons have rushed to the census office in the Bacon building to get counted that the local office is rapidly running out of enumerators. Blank and Donohue has telegraphed to Washington for an additional supply. Fifty thousand of the slips have been distributed in Oakland and Donohue has asked for another 20,000. These slips are used where persons are not at home when the workers call, or in cases where persons call at the local office to be counted.

A partial halt in the enumeration was caused today when over a hundred of the enumerators who are university students were required to register for the opening of the spring semester. Class work at the university will not be organized this week, however, and most of the students employed by the census will be able to carry through the work after registration today. A dozen enumeration districts have been completed throughout the city, according to Donohue, and the workers detailed to take the missing enumeration districts will be unable to finish their districts by next Friday.

Marshall claims the woman gave him the ring to pawn for her and that she received most of the money.

Former German Attache Aged, Haggard and Broken
by Imprisonment; May Be Deported

Wilhelm Von Brincken, formerly attached unofficially to the German consulate here, who arrived yesterday afternoon after his release from the federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island, announced today that he had given up all hope of a reconciliation with his divorced wife, Mrs. Millo Abercrombie, as result of the announcement of her engagement to Lieutenant Lyman K. Swenson, U. S. N. Von Brincken served a sentence in McNeil's Island prison for a violation of the American neutrality laws, deportation proceedings being pressed against him.

"It makes me extremely unhappy," he said, "but I cannot be helped." Von Brincken said, "I hope she will be happy in her new life, but I think it would have been better had the children been given the protection of their mother's parents. I either have that responsibility placed in the hands of a stranger, I shall forget my marital troubles as far as possible and will concentrate all my efforts toward winning the right to remain in this country and becoming a useful American citizen."

"I will quit my efforts to win my wife back, I expect when she comes here from Germany so that we may enter on the business of stock raising on a large scale."

Von Brincken announced that he intended to remain in San Francisco until the deportation action is ended.

HOPED FOR RECONCILIATION.
Von Brincken declares that the hope of a reconciliation with his wife and the resulting of his family was the hope that sustained him during the period of his confinement. He says he considers that he has paid in full the price of his mistake, committed under orders of his superiors and in what was regarded as his duty to his oath as an officer of the German army. Had he expected that the United States would ever become involved as a participant in the war, he says, no power would have been strong enough to have compelled him to obey the orders of the consulate.

He characterizes the service rendered his chief as a battle between duty and honor on the one hand and sentiment and inclination on the other.

Very changed he was in aspect, haggard by a severe cough brought from the prison, he appeared prematurely aged, haggard and broken. Von Brincken declared that he loves America most, and that he wants to be allowed to remain here and live down the past. He says he desires to get in touch with his people and secure the means to enable him to engage in ranching. His two brothers are coming to America from Germany, he says, to so engage in a proceeding which he says he will immediately begin. At that time his father was here and the decision was made. He says he applied to be released from his oath as a German officer, and that it was refused.

WILL FIGHT DEPORTATION.
In reference to his hope of a reconciliation, Von Brincken said that the subject is too sacred to be discussed, but that in view of the wide publicity given his intimate affairs he would discuss that such a hope against his return; that his love for his wife and children remains unbroken, notwithstanding his wife sued for a divorce and fought successfully to have his children known not by the name of Von Brincken but by the name of Abercrombie.

Henry M. Owens, counsel for Von Brincken, has with the immigration department a 207-page brief defending the objection of his client against deportation to Germany. In this brief Owens makes the point that under the act of February 5, 1917, which provides for deportation, which proceeding for deportation was brought against Von Brincken, is "ex post facto," the law being passed after the crime was committed. Owens says that the act was applied to the Hindu case after the passage of the act.

Rancher Accused of Threats Dismissed

The district attorney's office today dismissed the charge of assault with a deadly weapon against James E. Coniff, rancher, who was alleged to have threatened George E. Coughlin, and other deputies when they attempted to spread a rumor that Coniff had pointed the gun at anyone, the evidence tending to show that he only laid the gun down and ordered the scattered cattlemen off his premises.

City Goes Into Court

condemnation proceedings to affect the extension of Third street from Market to a Lusk street was begun in the city of Oakland in the court of Judge Everett Brown today.

Two Admit Bankruptcy

Two E. C. residents today filed petitions of bankruptcy in the United States District Court. One, C. J. Golden, a shoe retail worker of Oakland, filed a petition listing liabilities of $1250, mostly in the form of notes and bills. William O. Hottel, proprietor of an Oakland restaurant, listed assets of $800 and liabilities of $4400.

TIA JUANA
IS NOT FIGHT
SITE: KEARNS

On top of Governor William D. Stephens' threat to appeal for federal action to prevent the Dempsey-Kearns fight at the Mexican town of Tia Juana, a statement from Jack Kearns, manager of the American heavy weight champion, that the Mexican town is not the proper place for such an exhibition and that the big bill will, in all probability, be fought in Europe.

NOT PROPER PLACE

"I can't see a chance in the world of holding the fight at Tia Juana," said Kearns, "and after coming over the ground personally I am of the opinion that Lower California is not the proper site."

"In the first place transit rates are too high. That there is not a large enough local population to draw from."

"Jim Coffey told me that he had never stated the fight at Tia Juana. His chief aim is to be the promoter, whether in Mexico, the United States, England or France. He does not appear to care. It seems to me that all this Tia Juana talk has been to get some enterprise promoted by Coffey and operating there."

"In the meantime, neither Dempsey nor myself is carrying. When Jack Kearns has his picture in two months or so, he will begin active training, and will fight someone who does not care who his opponent will be. If he can't get Coffey, he will offer a bout to the contender of the next importance, Fulton, Morahan, Miske or any of all of them."

STAND OF GOVERNOR

Governor Stephens in his statement at Sacramento declared that it is my duty to command respect for the laws of California. I shall therefore feel obliged, if necessary, to use the power of the Federal Government and request that it exercise its powers of regulation and control at the international boundary so as to prevent the holding of a contest.

The people of California have refused to tolerate the evil influences growing out of such pugilistic encounters and have declared their opposition to them.

These intolerable influences would be the same if the contest were held in Tia Juana as if held in San Diego or elsewhere in our State.

Under normal international relations a protest on the part of this country to the Mexican government is in order. The boundary line that would be offensive to the people of California would undoubtedly be effective, but inasmuch as no such diplomatic relations exist, I call appeal to our Federal Government to employ its authority at the border line so as to make impossible this menace of the laws of California.

Big Bill Holds Up
Saloon, Fires Shots,
Declares It Joke

"Big Bill's" holdup of the Tom Ross saloon at Fourth and Broadway last night may have been a joke and all that, but when Big Bill's revolver shots tore holes in the ceiling the crowd in the place did not register the least hilarity. Today Ross would not divulge the real name of Big Bill. He said it was all a joke, and he didn't want to get a good customer "in bad."

Big Bill was masked from eyes to chin when he entered, and he used the regular robber language about "throwing up your hands and keeping your mouths shut and handing over your coin." Nobody in the place stirred, and they continued sniggering when Big Bill ripped loose with a couple of shots over their heads.

Finally, Big Bill tore the mask off his face, said it was all a joke and he did not mean any harm. The police do not think so. Peter Tomasi, janitor of the saloon, did not think so, either. It was he who telephoned the police, but they did not find Big Bill.

STATE TAKES IN
$52,124,082, AND
PAYS $54,206,741

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—The State treasury during 1919 received $52,124,082.59 and paid out $54,206,741.69, according to a report made today by State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson.

"These figures, while showing the large volume of business transacted by the State and the prosperous condition of State affairs, also point the need for economy," said Richardson. "The fact that the balance in hand at the close of the year was less than at the beginning of the year is due to the necessity for financing State highway construction, owing to inability to market highway bonds at par. The balance on hand at the beginning of 1919 was $12,323,552.40 and at the close $10,446,700. Franchise taxes are beginning to come in and from now on the balance in the treasury will be rapidly increased."

STEALS RIDE
ON AIRPLANE;
GOES TO JAIL

Ever since Loring Green dreamed of soaring the ethereal blue, man's wings have been clipped by the civil code as the law of gravitation.

All of which has to do with the brief and exciting adventure of John Marquez, transient in Vallejo and possessor of a soul that longs for flight. When Lieutenant J. T. Cunningham of the Durant flying field took the air at Vallejo yesterday he noticed that his craft was not behaving as a well-trained plane should act. So Cunningham made of a wheat patch an emergency landing field and came down in the center of an excited populace who had been pursuing his flight by automobile and on foot.

On the call of the landing gear was found John Marquez, aerial stowaway, a bit frightened, but more disappointed that his plans for "bumping a ride" to Oakland had failed. The engine in Vallejo put him in jail and he was trying to figure out the charge. He damaged a wheat field, flew without a license, stole a ride and aspired to unaccustomed heights. Marquez today promised justice of the Peace Brown that he would pay the $10 damage said to have been done to the grain field.

Merchant Freed

Immigration authorities at Angel Island ordered the release today of Samuel Newhouse, rich silk merchant of Buenos Aires, held for examination on report that he was a German agent, following his arrival from Valparaiso yesterday on the steamer Anyo Maru. His wife also was detained.

Officers at the station today said that there was no reason to obstruct Newhouse's movements. He was held for some time in 1918 when he came here from the Orient on the way to Valparaiso.

Newhouse was born in Austria, but declares he has been a citizen of Chile for twenty years. He served with the British navy during the Boer war, he said, and detests the Germans because of their atrocities.
